(a) None

(b) County Councillor Stuart Brittain reported that there has been an increase in dog fouling, the dog warden is aware and a number of fines have been issued.

A consultation has been taking place with residents in Brimington Common regarding the Crow Lane closure. It seems that 73% of residents are opposed to the closure of the Lane to traffic. The Cycle Campaign and Derbyshire County Council are pushing for the permanent closure. At Chesterfield Royal Hospital there are usually only between six and eight bicycles parked in the designated area.

At the Spinney Care Home there have been no Covid related deaths. The staff have been great by working extra shifts and taking care of the residents.
